Iowa Chapter Mission Statement

The mission of Iowa NAHRO is to increase professionalism through training, networking, and member involvement, and to educate members regarding state and national housing and community development policies with the ultimate benefit of a higher standard of service to the people in communities served.

Iowa Chapter Vision Statement

The Iowa Chapter of NAHRO is the premier Iowa organization for education, information and advocacy in housing and community development and a recognized partner for economic development.

Professional Development

Iowa NAHRO sponsors professional development training and conferences on housing and community development. These programs are designed to help housing practitioners acquire and sharpen the practical skills needed for today's housing and community development work.

Networking

Iowa NAHRO members have access to a wide variety of individuals with specialized skills. Members have an opportunity to work with others who have experienced similar housing and community development challenges.

Training Opportunities

Iowa NAHRO provides training to meet the needs of the participants through conference workshops. Ideas for topics are sought through membership surveys conducted regularly by the Professional Development Committee.

Advocacy

Iowa NAHRO is committed to representing the interest of members at the state and regional level. Each year state legislative priorities are established and supported by the organization. Iowa NAHRO is in its third decade of housing advocacy.

At the national level NAHRO has actively and effectively supported housing and community development for more than 60 years.

Newsletter/E-news

Iowa NAHRO provides a newsletter/e-news to all its members with information on housing and community development issues.

Membership

Iowa NAHRO solicits membership in November and December each year. There are three categories of membership: associate, agency and individual.
